The outlook for the business remains positive with the outlay of significant investments by the government in the union budget for Railways and infrastructure. However, we continue to face a challenge from high levels of imports, particularly from FTA countries like Indonesia and Vietnam. In the wake of these emerging business challenges, we have carried out an internal restructuring to sharpen our key focus areas. We have created a centralised team to serve as a knowledge bank, carve out new stainless steel applications through conversion from other materials, and develop new markets," Abhyuday Jindal, managing director at Jindal Stainless said in a release.

The company said the the stainless steel market is currently facing serious threats from subsidised imports coming from countries like Indonesia whos imports constituted over 28% of total imports into India during the quarter.

Last month the government has initiated an anti-dumping duty investigation that will cover all stainless steel flat products from major exporting countries like Indonesia, China, Korea , Japan, Taiwan, etc. The invesigation will cover both ASEAN and countries with which India has a free trade agreement (FTA) with.

"The domestic industry is hopeful that the government will set right this unabated dumping into India. Without government support, operations of Indian manufacturers will turn unviable, leading into a downward spiral of production closures and job losses," the company said.
